

Art of Impact - 80th Anniversary Campaign

For 80 years, LAMusArt has been the artistic heartbeat of East Los Angeles—a place where creativity is nurtured, families gather, and young people discover and develop their voices. What began as a small community music school has blossomed into a vibrant multidisciplinary arts hub, offering instruction in music, art, dance, and drama to more than 700 students each year.

In keeping with our mission of access and inclusion, LAMusArt has made meaningful improvements to our campus to ensure it is welcoming and accessible to all. We've completed a fully accessible front entrance, added a new accessible restroom, and expanded our parking lot to increase the number of accessible parking spaces—removing physical barriers so that every student, family member, and guest can participate fully in the life of our school.

Now, we invite you to be part of The Art of Impact—a movement to strengthen our programs, expand access, and celebrate the transformative power of the arts in the lives of young people. Together, we can ensure that creativity continues to thrive in East LA for generations to come.
